
ADAM FELIX, University of Lethbridge
On invariants of elliptic curves on average

In this talk, we discuss elliptic curve conjectures on average. The method will have applications to Koblitz's conjecture, the cyclicity problem and moments of the exponent of the group of points of the elliptic curve over finite fields. This is joint work with Amir Akbary.