PATRICK INGRAM, Colorado State University
Arithmetic dynamics of correspondences

Arithmetic dynamics concerns the iteration of endomorphisms of an algebraic variety defined over a number field (or some other field of arithmetic interest). This talk will survey some attempts to extend some of the theory to finite-to-finite correspondences on varieties, focussing largely on the projective case.