
IAN PUTNAM, University of Victoria

Relative K -theory for C^ -algebras and applications*

I will give a description for a relative K -theory determined by an inclusion of a pair of C^* -algebras. I will describe a result which shows two such pairs have isomorphic relative K -groups. Finally, I will present some examples arising from problems in orbit equivalence of Cantor minimal systems and from projection method tilings.