
ALINA C. COJOCARU, University of Illinois at Chicago
Serre curves in one parameter families

In 1972, Serre proved that the Galois groups of the n -division fields of a non-CM elliptic curve over \mathbb{Q} are as large as possible, provided that n is sufficiently large. I will discuss what “sufficiently large” means when one looks at a one-parameter family of elliptic curves.

This is joint work with David Grant and Nathan Jones.