
RAFAL KULIK, University of Ottawa

Panorama of limits for long memory processes

I will discuss different phenomena related to long memory processes, starting with limit theorems for partial sums, nonlinear functionals, as well as empirical and quantile processes. Applications to nonparametric estimation will be given. Proofs of those results are based on asymptotic expansions and/or martingale approximations.