

---

MATHEW ROGERS, University of Illinois
Computational proofs of Mahler measure identities

I will show how to use the WZ and PSLQ algorithms to prove identities involving Mahler measures. Some of these identities were previously proved with algebraic K-theory. I will also mention connections to elliptic dilogarithms, and the conjectures of Bloch and Grayson.