MATT ROGERS, University of Montreal
Spanning trees and Mahler measure

I will discuss several integrals that arise in statistical mechanics, which are related to Mahler measures of multivariable polynomials. I will show that these integrals reduce to 5F4 hypergeometric functions. This is joint work with Tony Guttmann.