
MICHAEL LAU, Université Laval

Representations of twisted current algebras

A number of recent papers have used evaluation modules to describe the finite-dimensional representation theory of various generalizations of affine Lie algebras (derived algebras modulo their centres). We explain how these ideas can be combined with techniques from descent theory to give a unified treatment of these representations.