FIONA MURNAGHAN, University of Toronto
Distinction of depth-zero representations

If H is a subgroup of a representation of a group G, a representation of G is H-distinguished if there exists an H-invariant linear functional on the space of the representation. Let H be the fixed points of an involution of a reductive p-adic group G. We discuss some results and some questions concerning H-distinguished depth-zero irreducible smooth representations of G.