

---

STEFFEN LEMPP, University of Wisconsin-Madison

Kalimullin pairs and definability in the enumeration degrees

We study the distribution of Kalimullin pairs (K-pairs) in the global enumeration degrees, solving several open questions and obtaining as a corollary the solution to Rogers' 1967 question that the total enumeration degrees are indeed definable in the enumeration degrees.