
ISKANDER KALIMULLIN, Kazan Federal University

Index sets and enumerability of families

I will study the connection between computably enumerable families and the complexity of related index sets. In particular, we will see that the non-low-2 degrees do not form a degree spectrum of a family of sets, while the non-low degrees do.