JOSHUA GREENE, Boston College

Strong L-spaces

A strong L-space is a 3-manifold defined in terms of a combinatorial condition on a Heegaard diagram. Stong L-spaces comprise a proper subset of L-spaces, which makes them special from the point of view of Heegaard Floer homology. I will discuss joint work with Adam Levine concerning what we know about these spaces and some interesting open questions about them.