ALMUT BURCHARD, University of Toronto
Ergodic properties of folding maps on spheres

We consider the trajectories of points on the (d-1)-dimensional sphere under certain folding maps associated with reflections. The main result gives a condition for a collection of such maps to produce dense trajectories. At least d+1 directions are required to satisfy the conditions. (Joint work with A. Dranovski and G. R. Chambers.)