
STEPHEN ANCO, Brock University

Integrable multi-component peakon equations from a modified AKNS scheme

The standard AKNS scheme for generating integrable evolution systems is modified to obtain integrable peakon systems. In the simplest case, the modified scheme yields a large family of integrable multi-component peakon equations, together with their recursion operators, symmetries, conservation laws, and bi-Hamiltonian structure.