

---

JOHN HOLBROOK, U of Guelph

Triply generated matrix algebras

An old result, often called Gerstenhaber's Theorem, states that the algebra of polynomials in two commuting  $n \times n$  matrices has dimension at most  $n$ . Here we discuss the possibility of extending this result to algebras generated by THREE commuting matrices.