
LAURA COLMENAREJO, York University and Fields Institute

Projections from vector-valued Macdonald polynomials to scalar polynomials and applications to singular polynomials

We analyze conditions under which a projection from the vector-valued Macdonald polynomials to scalar polynomials has useful properties, especially commuting with the actions of the symmetric group or Hecke algebra, respectively, and with the Cherednik operators for which these polynomials are eigenfunctions.