
TRAN NGHIA, Oakland University

On the solution uniqueness to Lasso and related problems

In this talk we provide several new complete characterizations for the uniqueness of optimal solution to Lasso and some related problems. Our characterizations in terms of positively linear independence and Slater-type obtained via second-order variational analysis and metric subregularity of subdifferential are well-recognized to be verifiable.