
ANTONIO MONTERO, York University

A family of regular hypertopes built from regular polytopes

A regular hypertope is a combinatorial object that generalises both regular hypermaps and regular polytopes. In this talk we will present a construction of a family of regular hypertopes with some preassigned conditions on their local combinatorics. This family is built from a family of regular polytopes.