

---

DENIS HIRSCHFELDT, University of Chicago

A minimal pair in the generic degrees

I will outline the construction of a minimal pair in the generic degrees, which contrasts with Igusa's result that there are no minimal pairs for relative generic computability. I will also discuss several remaining related open questions.