
HAO HU, Clemson University

The Linearization Problem Of A Binary Quadratic Problem And its Applications

We provide several applications of the linearization problem of a binary quadratic problem. We propose a new lower bounding strategy, called the linearization-based scheme, that is based on a simple certificate for a quadratic function to be non-negative on the feasible set. This is a joint work with Prof. Renata Sotirov.