
MINH BUI, University of Waterloo

A Decomposition Method for Solving Multicommodity Network Equilibria

We consider the numerical aspect of the multicommodity network equilibrium problem proposed by Rockafellar in 1995. Our method relies on the flexible monotone operator splitting framework recently proposed by Combettes and Eckstein.