

---

CHRIS GODSIL, University of Waterloo

State transfer on big graphs

Childs and colleagues have made use of continuous quantum walk on infinite graphs, obtained by merging infinite paths onto some vertices of a finite graph. This work raises questions about state transfer on such graphs. I have proved that perfect state transfer cannot occur on a connected infinite graph with bounded valency. I will discuss some of the components of this proof, and of some related results.