

---

ROBERT FRASER, Wichita State University

A Framework for constructing large sets without configurations

We describe a framework introduced in 2020 for constructing subsets of  $\mathbb{R}^n$  of large Hausdorff dimension that avoid certain kinds of configurations. We present some possible future directions for this framework.