
GABRIEL VERRET, University of Auckland

Density of quotient orders in groups and applications to locally-transitive graphs

We will discuss a recent result that the set of orders of finite quotients of a finitely generated group has natural density 0, $1/2$ or 1. We also discuss applications of this result to the natural density of the set of orders of various families of symmetric graphs.